19 North Main Street
Temple, Texas 76501

Letter of Agreement between
Temple College Foundation and
Temple College

Temple Junior College Foundation, inc. dba Temple College, a 501(c)(3) organization, is charitable in nature and was established for the sole purpose of assisting Temple College both academically and physically. The Foundation is a separate organization that maintains its identification with Temple College through its use of logos and other symbols of the College.

The President of the College is an ad hoc member of the Board of Directors and has access to the Foundation's financial statements and audits in that role. The President and the Board of Trustees of the College as well as the Executive Director and the Foundation's Board of Directors work in concert to establish goals and objectives related to the direct needs of the College.

The Foundation is solely governed by its own Board of Directors and Officers and is responsible for monitoring its compliance with state and federal laws governing its operation. The By-Laws of Temple Junior College Foundation, Inc. define the liabilities and indemnifications of the Foundation's Board of Directors and is separately liable for its own activities. In addition, the By-Laws of the Temple College Foundation describe the relationship between the Foundation and Temple College as exclusively educational.

The relationship between the College and the Foundation is consistent with the Foundation mission statement which reads, "Temple Junior College Foundation, Inc. is organized and shall be operated exclusively for the charitable purpose of assisting and contributing to the academic and physical growth and development of Temple Junior College District, a public Junior College in Temple, Bell County, Texas".
