Do you dread number-crunching? Do you feel:

- lost amidst financial statements and GAAPs?
- stumped with balance sheets and fixed assets?
- clueless on cost of goods sold and cash flow statements?

If so, then The Accounting Game is just for you. It's the perfect, easy-to-understand finance training for managers!

The Accounting Game provides participants with a fundamental understanding of how an organization makes money - and, more importantly, how to contribute to its financial success. Participants will learn the equivalent of big picture concepts covered in a college semester's worth of accounting 101...in a unique, fun, eight hours of interactive simulation. They'll leave speaking the language of business with fluency and confidence.

Using the lemonade stand game, The Accounting Game simplifies the complex nature of accounting principles, making it an ideal financial training for non-financial managers.

This unique 8 hour training is scheduled for:

and
Thursday, November 12,
