

PRESIDENT'S COUNCIL

Function and Purpose:

The President's Council is intended to ensure the regular review of Temple College planning and operations by the chief administrative officers, and to coordinate administrative decision-making. Representatives serving on this committee are expected to disseminate information discussed at each meeting to the appropriate area(s) for which they represent.

Composition:

- President (Chair)
- Vice President, Administrative Services
- Vice President, Educational Services
- Division Director, Business and Career Professions
- Division Director, Fine Arts
- Division Director, Liberal Arts
- Division Director, Mathematics, Sciences, and Physical Education
- Division Director, Student and Enrollment Services
- Division Director, Learning Resources
- Division Director, Business and Continuing Education
- Associate Vice President, Finance and Information Technology Services
- Associate Vice President, Resource Management
- Associate Vice President, Health Professions
- Associate Vice President, Academic Outreach & Extended Programs
- Associate Vice President, Community Initiatives & Special Programs
- Director, Hutto Center
- Director, Institutional Effectiveness, Research, and Planning
- Director, Temple College Foundation
- Director, Marketing and Media Relations
- Director, Athletics
- Director, Physical Plant
- Temple College Accreditation Liaison
- Faculty Council Representative
- Classified Staff Representative

The council meets every first and third Thursday of the month at 2:00 p.m. or on-call by the chair.