

PRIVATE USE OF EQUIPMENT

All Temple College personnel will use College equipment for the sole purpose of achieving the stated purposes of the institution. The equipment of Temple College are not to be used for private instruction or any other private purpose by any member of the faculty or staff.

Off-campus use of college equipment for non-college related activities must have written approval of the Vice President, Administrative Services.