Individuals Granted a Filing Extension by the IRS and have not yet filed a Tax Return

If an individual is required to file a 2016 IRS income tax return and has been granted a filing extension by the IRS, provide ALL the following documents:

1. A copy of IRS Form 4868, "Application for Automatic Extension of Time to File U.S. Individual Income Tax Return," that was filed with the IRS for tax year 2016;
2. If applicable, a copy of the IRS's approval of an extension beyond the automatic six-month extension if the individual requested an additional extension of the filing time for tax year 2016;

5. If self-employed, a signed statement certifying the amount of the individual's Adjusted Gross Income (AGI) and the U.S. income tax paid for tax year 2016.

Individuals Who Were Victims of IRS Tax-Related Identity Theft

Individuals who are victims of IRS tax-related identity theft must submit to the institution:

- A Tax Return DataBase View (TRDBV) transcript obtained from the IRS; and
- A statement signed and dated by the tax filer indicating that they were victims of IRS tax-related identity theft and that the IRS has been made aware of the tax-related identity theft.

Tax filers may obtain a TRDBV transcript and inform the IRS of the tax-related identity theft by calling the IRS's Identity Protection Specialized Unit (IPSU) at 1-800-908-4490. The IPSU will first authenticate the identity of the tax filer, who can then ask the IRS to mail them a TRDBV transcript. The TRDBV transcript will look different than a regular IRS tax return transcript, but it is official and can be used for verification. Tax filers who cannot obtain a TRDBV transcript may instead submit another official IRS transcript or equivalent document provided by the IRS if it includes all of the income and tax information required to be verified. Unless the institution has reason to suspect the authenticity of the TRDBV transcript or the equivalent document provided by the IRS, a signature or stamp or any other validation from the IRS is not needed.

Individuals Who Filed Foreign Income Tax Returns

- A tax filer who filed an income tax return with Guam, the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico and the U.S. Virgin Islands may provide a signed copy of his or her income tax return that was filed with the relevant tax authority. However, if we question the accuracy of the information on the signed copy of the income tax return, the tax filer must provide us with a copy of the tax account information issued by the relevant tax authority before verification can be completed.
- A tax filer who filed an income tax return with the tax authority for American Samoa must provide a copy of his or her tax account information.
- A tax filer who filed an income tax return with tax authorities not mentioned above, i.e. a foreign tax authority, and who indicates that he or she is unable to obtain the tax account information free of charge, must provide documentation that the tax authority charges a fee to obtain that information, along with a signed copy of his or her income tax return that was filed with the relevant tax authority.
- Foreign Non-Filers: If another tax authority can provide documentation similar to the IRS that indicates the individual did not file taxes for the appropriate tax year, the individual must request such documentation and provide it to the institution. If such documentation does not exist, or if the individual is unable to obtain the documentation, the institution may accept a signed and dated statement from the individual listing total 2016 income earned and stating either that the tax authority does not provide such documentation or that the individual was unable to obtain the documentation after contacting the tax authority.

Individuals Who Cannot Get a Copy of Their IRS Tax Transcript

An individual who is unable to obtain a tax transcript from the IRS (or other relevant taxing authority) must submit to the institution: {PLEASE NOTE THAT ALL 4 DOCUMENTS ARE REQUIRED}

1. A signed copy of the relevant (i.e., applicant, spouse, or parent) 2016 IRS tax return that was filed with the IRS.
2. A signed statement from the tax filer, on or attached to the tax return, which certifies that the tax return submitted to the institution includes the same information that was submitted to the IRS.
3. Documentation from the IRS that the tax transcript request was unsuccessful.
