

EDUCATIONAL SERVICES COUNCIL

Function and Purpose:

The Educational Service Council is charged with the responsibility of discussing issues and policies related to student support and instructional programs of Temple College and making recommendations as needed. Representatives serving on this committee are expected to disseminate information discussed at each meeting to the appropriate area(s) for which they represent.

Composition:

Voting Members

- Vice President, Educational Services (Chair)
- Associate Vice President, Health Professions
- Division Director, Business and Career Professions
- Division Director, Fine Arts
- Division Director, Liberal Arts
- Division Director, Mathematics, Sciences, and Physical Education
- Division Director, Student and Enrollment Services
- Director, Learning Resources
- Director, Business and Continuing Education
- Associate Vice President, Academic Outreach & Extended Programs

Ex Officio (non-voting)

- Vice President, Administrative Services
- Associate Vice President, Community Initiatives & Special Programs
- Director, Institutional Effectiveness, Research, and Planning
- Director, eLearning
- President of Faculty Council or designee
- Professional Development Coordinator

The Council meets the first Wednesday of each month or on-call by the chair.