

Leopard Food Pantry

Acceptance of Free Food and Waiver Liability

- Patrons of the Temple College Leopard Food Pantry understand that food can only be picked up by a current enrolled student or current employee who completed the intake form.
- Students and employees understand that food they receive from the Temple college Leopard Food Pantry has been donated and/or purchased from off-campus partners and that none of the parties or groups involved in the program make any guarantees as to the quality of the food or its value for any particular purpose. Temple College does examine content integrity but does not guarantee any such admissions or claims.
- A "Best if Used By/Before" date indicates when a product will be of best flavor or quality. It is not a purchase or safety date. A "Sell-By" date tells the store how long to display the product for sale for inventory management. A "Use-By" date is the last date recommended for the use of the product while at peak quality.
- Temple College and the original donor will be released from any liability or harm or losses in connection with the food or supplies students and employees receive. Students and employees assume any risks and covenant not to sue the released parties with respect to such harm or losses.
- Students and employees will only request and take items that they expect themselves and/or their family to use. Temple College cannot guarantee the availability of food and may suggest additional community locations and resources.

Temple College is committed to nondiscrimination practices based upon race, gender, gender identity and expression, disability, age, religion, national origin, genetic information, or veteran status.
