

TERMS OF SERVICE

Whereas the Texas Education Code (130.082) specifies the number, term, and qualifications for Temple College Board Members and whereas the law does not fix a limit to the number of six-year terms a board member may serve, the institutional policy is that no limit exists for length of service on the Board of Trustees.

Therefore, since there is no limit to the number of six-year terms that a person may be elected to the Board of Trustees, there can be no institutional policy, which rotates individuals off the Board. Thus, the Board of Trustees has no rotation policy for board members.
