

2020-2021 GUIDED PATHWAY

Level I Certificate in Computer Information Systems

FIRST FALL
16 WEEKS	NOTES	SCH	COMPLETED
FIRST 8 WEEKS	NOTES	SCH	COMPLETED
ITSC 1305 - Intro. to PC Operating Systems		3	<input type="checkbox"/>
ITSC 1325 - Personal Computer Hardware		3	<input type="checkbox"/>
SECOND 8 WEEKS	NOTES	SCH	COMPLETED
BCIS 1305 - Business Comp. Applications	FY	3	<input type="checkbox"/>
COSC 1301 - Intro. to Computers	FY	3	<input type="checkbox"/>
Total SCH		12

FIRST SPRING
16 WEEKS	NOTES	SCH	COMPLETED
FIRST 8 WEEKS	NOTES	SCH	COMPLETED
INFO TECH Elective		3	<input type="checkbox"/>
SECOND 8 WEEKS	NOTES	SCH	COMPLETED
ITNW 1325 - Fundamentals in Networking Tech.		3	<input type="checkbox"/>
Total SCH		6
Graduation SCH		18

Definition of Notes

Must successfully complete the course in order to progress in the Level I Certificate in Computer Information Systems

FY Course will be offered on a continuous basis so that a student can take the course in any fall and spring semester.

Click for INFO TECH/Management electives

Apply for graduation - Level I Certificate in Computer Information Systems

Helpful Links

Expenses and Scholarships

ITSC Courses

Financial Aid Information

CIS Website

Transfer Outlook

The Level I (LV1) Certificate in Computer Technology Computer Applications Technology is designed to develop the fundamental skills, knowledge, and experience which prepares the student for positions in the field of computer information systems and their use on the job. The program combines classroom lecture along with the hands-on experience to give the students practical knowledge of computer systems.

Career Outlook

Computer Operator - $28,497* w/Certificate

Computer Repair - $31,794* w/Certificate

Computer User Support - $32,215* w/Certificate

*Based on entry-level jobs in Central Texas