

Student Loan Information Published by U.S. Department of Education

Loans are an optional source of aid for students. Student loans must be repaid after the student graduates, withdraws from school, or drops below six credits. Interest rates, grace periods, and repayment requirements vary depending on the type of loan.

In accordance with U.S. Department of Education regulations (HEOA 489 amended HEA Sec.485B) a student's title IV loan information is submitted to National Student Loan Data System (NSLDS). Authorized agencies, lenders, guarantors, servicers and institutions have access to this information.

For more loan information student and parent borrowers can visit: StudentLoans.gov and/or StudentAid.ed.gov