

39th
Annual
Central Texas
Art Competition and Exhibition
Nov. 17 - Dec. 3, 2018

The Central Texas Art Competition is sponsored by Altrusa International of Temple and the Temple South Rotary Club. The exhibition is coordinated by the Temple College Visual Arts Department.

Type of Work

Original paintings, photography, ceramics, sculpture, drawings, prints and jewelry. Drawings and prints should be hinge matted with stiff backing and ready to hang. Work without hangers will not be juried. Paintings should be framed, strip framed or the edges painted in a presentable way. Work previously exhibited in this art competition may not be entered.

Juror: Mark Anderson

Mark Anderson is a professor and chair of the Baylor University Art Department. He has exhibited nationally, and is active as a visiting artist and juror.

Prizes and Awards

Prize money will be awarded on the night of the opening. The Juror will award six $125 Awards of Excellence and two $50 Honorable Mention Awards in each division. A special Juror's Award of $200 also will be presented in each division.

Statement

The two-fold goal of the competition is to encourage and challenge student artists in the Central Texas area. It also provides an opportunity for the public to see the creative efforts of these artists.
